

2022 Congressional Voter Scorecard

As recent Supreme Court decisions have demonstrated, it is more important than ever to vote with secular issues in mind. Your legislators matter. During the 117th session of Congress (2021-2022), Congress has considered a number of bills and resolutions which are relevant to the secular community. The scorecard below assigns House and Senate members a score out of 100 on the basis of floor votes and co-sponsorships of these pieces of legislation, as well as membership in the House Congressional Freethought Caucus.

Senate Bills:

Respect for Marriage Act:

The Respect for Marriage Act (RFMA) repeals the Defense of Marriage Act, which denied same-sex married couples the same benefits and protections afforded to heterosexual married couples. While Congress cannot mandate that states issue marriage licenses to same-sex couples, RFMA does require that states recognize same-sex marriages, adoption orders, divorce decrees and more which were issued in other states.

S.Amdt.6493:

The Respect for Marriage Act mandates that any entity acting "under color of State law" must recognize marriages and claims arising from other states; in addition to states themselves, this includes contractors, such as private prisons, adoption agencies, and more. This amendment would have restricted this requirement, so that only the states themselves are required to recognize out-of-state marriages, not the contractors they hire.

S.Amdt.6496

The Respect for Marriage Act includes a private right of action, so that individuals who are harmed by a violation of the rule that anyone acting "under color of State law" must recognize out-of-state marriages may bring civil action against the violating person in court. This amendment would have removed this protection.

"Free Exercise" Amendment:

This amendment, S.Amdt.821, would have allowed the Chairman of the Committee on the Budget to reallocate funds in defense of "the free exercise of religion" in employment, social services, healthcare, education, and more— "free exercise of religion" in this case being essentially a euphemism for allowing the right to discriminate based on religious beliefs.

Pandemic Restrictions Amendment:

This amendment, S.Amdt.821, would have required that religious institutions be treated the same as businesses under pandemic restrictions, so that essential secular businesses such as grocery stores cannot be prioritized over houses of worship.

The Do No Harm Act:

The Do No Harm Act aims to prevent the Religious Freedom Restoration Act from being used to allow discrimination based on religion in health care, social services, employee benefits, and other areas.

Protecting the Equal Rights of Nonreligious Americans

House Bills and Issues:

Congressional Freethought Caucus:

Founded in 2018, the CFC serves to protect the secular character of government by upholding the separation of church and state, and it promotes policy solutions grounded in reason and science. CFC membership is so significant that it counts twice in the ratings.

The Equality Act:

The Equality Act, which passed the House in February 2021, added sex, sexual orientation, and gender to the federally prohibited categories of discrimination. It prohibits defenses or claims based on religious freedom.

The Do No Harm Act:

The Do No Harm Act aims to prevent the Religious Freedom Restoration Act from being used to allow discrimination based on religion in health care, social services, employee benefits, and other areas.

No Ban Act:

The No Ban Act limits the President's power to suspend or restrict immigration, and prohibits religious discrimination in immigration-related decisions.

Amendment 83 on HR4502, the Omnibus:

This amendment prevents federal funds from being used to prepare or implement any rule updating the Department of Labor's guidance on religious exemptions in employment.

The John Lewis Every Child Deserves a Family Act:

This bill would prohibit discrimination on the basis of religion, sexual identity, marital status, and more in the provision of federally funded child welfare programs.

Kennedy v. Bremerton Amicus Brief:

This amicus brief was submitted to the Supreme Court by members of the House in support of a public school football coach who refused to stop conducting team prayers after games, and whose contract was subsequently not renewed.

HR301:

This bill would establish a national hymn.

Respect for Marriage Act:

This bill would require states to recognize same-sex and interracial marriages as civil agreements, and repeals the Defense of Marriage Act.
