Senate Bills

Do No Harm Act:

S.894 - The Do No Harm Act, clarifies the Religious Freedom Restoration Act's original intent to protect religious freedom without letting it be used to harm or discriminate against third parties. Prevents individuals or corporations from using religious objections as a defense to bypass federal civil rights and public protection laws

Free Speech Fairness Act

S.1205, the Free Speech Fairness Act, would strike down the Johnson Amendment which prohibits churches and other nonprofits from endorsing political candidates.

The Conscience Protection Act

S. 1756, the Conscience Protection Act, prohibits the federal government and any state or local entities receiving federal financial assistance from penalizing health care professionals, facilities, training programs, or insurers that object to abortion on moral or religious grounds and refuse to perform them.

Keep Public Funds in Public Schools

S. 4297 the Keep Public Funds in Public Schools Act would repeal the federal tax credit for contributions to scholarship-granting organizations, which fund private school tuition and other K–12 educational expenses. The legislation aims to keep public funds directed toward public education.

The GRACE Act

S.5128 the GRACE Act, would withhold federal funding from schools that do not allow a religious exemption for vaccine requirements.

A resolution designating the week of October 5, 2025, through October 11, 2025, as "Religious Education Week" to celebrate religious education in the United States

S.Res.426 - A resolution designating the week of October 5, 2025, through October 11, 2025, as "Religious Education Week" to celebrate religious education in the United States
Is a resolution supporting religious education and calling on every state to support programs that allow students to leave public schools during the day to attend religious education at churches.

Amendment Removing Federal School Voucher Programs

S.Amendment2382 This amendment would have removed from a spending bill the new federal school voucher program that redirects income tax payments to nonprofit organizations that then provide vouchers to private school students. Eighty percent of private schools are religious schools. The vote was 50-50 so Vice President Vance broke the tie by voting against the amendment.
